April 2017

ANCHORAGE CHAPTER

BY MICHELE LOGAN

This is the view outside my window as I write this newsletter on March 29 and it hasn't stopped snowing yet!

Come on Spring! But it is "warm."

By the time you get this newsletter, it will be April - the month of federal income taxes, APOA Anchorage Board elections and the April 15 deadline for the Anchorage Chapter 2017-2018 scholarships. You can find the scholarship application at our website <http://www.apoaonline.org/scholarships.html>.

April 15, 2017, also happens to be Kid's Day at the Dena'ina Center in Anchorage. The Anchorage Chapter donated $1,000 to this event.

The deadline for filing your 2016 personal federal income taxes is April 18, 2017. If you need more time to file, not to pay, you can file an automatic six-month extension on Form 4868, but after that, I can't help you; you're on your own!

Speaking of money, our April luncheon speaker will be our very own Anchorage Chapter board member, Anchorage PD Detective Clint Thomas. He will bring us a presentation on the current funny-money trend here in Anchorage – counterfeit bills.

Sometime around mid-month, you will receive an online email ballot for our Anchorage board elections at the same email at which you receive this newsletter. The positions up for election are President, Treasurer, and 2 board seats.

On April 26-27, 2017, the Anchorage FBI Joint Terrorism Task Force will be hosting a free anti-terrorism workshop at the National Park Service building, 240 West 5th Ave in Anchorage. Attendance is open to all LEO's, emergency planners, intel personnel, etc. POC is SA Sandra Klein at 907-265-8175 / Sandra.Klein@ic.fbi.gov.

And lastly, the ALERRT ERASE (Exterior Response to Active Shooter Events) for the May 1-2 Anchorage location is booked full with the maximum 36 participants. Our state business manager, Kalie Bell, has started a waiting list. But there are still openings at the Kenai (filling up fast), Fairbanks and Juneau locations. For more information and to register for attendance at any of the locations at our website www.apoaonline.org.

Our next Anchorage Chapter luncheon is Tuesday, April 4, 2017 at 11:30 AM at the Golden Corral in Anchorage. Come learn about what your cash money should look like and what it shouldn't...

We hope to see you at the April 4 luncheon!
