

ALASKA PEACE OFFICERS ASSOCIATION
INCORPORATED

Code of Bylaws

Revised June 24, 2024

ALASKA PEACE OFFICERS ASSOCIATION, INCORPORATED

PREAMBLE

In the firm conviction of the present and ultimate value, and the urgent and continuing necessity for an organization of peace officers, engaged in the extra-hazardous vocation of crime detection, prevention, and the protection of the public peace, and for the purpose of properly establishing such an organization and association, these bylaws are herewith promulgated.

ARTICLE I

NAME

The name of this organization shall be the ALASKA PEACE OFFICERS ASSOCIATION, INCORPORATED (hereafter “Association”), which has been incorporated under the laws of the State of Alaska as a non-profit corporation.

ARTICLE II

PURPOSES AND OBJECTIVES

SECTION 1. PURPOSES AND OBJECTIVES: The Association has been incorporated with the following purposes and objectives:

- A. TO ASSOCIATE: To foster and cultivate the social, educational, business, and professional relationships of the members; to broaden their interests in the pursuit of their occupations, professions, and vocation; to improve their standards of proficiency; and to promote the efficiency of its members in the performance of their duties as peace officers.
- B. TO IMPROVE: To promote the general welfare and prosperity of the members and to improve their status and condition by lawful and honorable means.
- C. TO EDUCATE: To gather, receive and disseminate information that may be helpful to members; to exchange ideas in rendering mutual assistance; to provide helpful vocational education, advice and guidance; and to join and associate with other organizations with similar purposes.
- D. TO ACQUIRE: To purchase, lease, hold, sell, convey, develop, mortgage, hypothecate, or otherwise acquire or dispose of real and personal property necessary or proper in order to carry out the purposes of this Association; to enter into any lawful contracts and to incur obligations essential to the transaction of its business; to receive gifts, legacies, and devises; to appoint subordinate agents as the business of the Association may require; to authorize the organization of subordinate chapters composed of members of this organization; and to do any and all things necessary to accomplish the purposes for which this organization is formed.

E. TO AID: To contribute to worthy causes.

F. TO INFORM: To improve Alaska's justice system, including review of current and proposed legislation pertaining to matters of public safety.

ARTICLE III MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. NONLIABILITY OF MEMBERS: No member, by virtue of that status, shall be liable for the debts, liabilities or obligations of the Association.

SECTION 2. CLASSES: Membership classes in this Association shall be Active, Associate, Life, Business Associate and Supporting.

SECTION 3. ELIGIBILITY: Any person meeting the eligibility requirements contained in these bylaws, upon approval of the Business Manager and/or local chapter, and upon payment of dues, will be deemed a member in good standing of this organization. Membership will not be extended to those whose service is in conflict with the needs and interests of law enforcement officers. Eligibility shall be determined by the State Executive Board.

SECTION 4. QUALIFICATIONS FOR ACTIVE MEMBERS: Any person engaged in the peace officer profession within the State of Alaska, including peace officers as defined by Alaska law. Upon approval of the Business Manager and/or local chapter, and upon payment of dues, will be deemed an Active member in good standing of this organization so long as the dues are certified as being current by the Business Manager.

SECTION 5. QUALIFICATIONS FOR ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP: Any person associated with the peace officer profession upon application, recommendation by an Active member, payment of dues, and with express approval of the chapter each year of membership, may become an Associate member. Associate members may not hold office at the state level or vote at that level. Associate members may vote on chapter business and hold office in their chapters, exclusive of chapter president or chapter vice-president, if permitted by chapter bylaws. Membership at the Associate level does not include death benefits.

SECTION 6. QUALIFICATIONS FOR LIFE MEMBERSHIP:

a.) Any Active or Associate member in good standing, who shall have served this organization with honor and distinction, may be elected to a Life membership by a vote of the State Executive Board of the Association. Any Active member in good standing can nominate any other member in good standing for Life membership. An Active member who is elected to a Life membership retains all the rights and privileges of Active membership. An Associate member elected to Life membership retains all the rights and privileges of Associate membership. Election to Life membership exempts the member from payment of Association dues.

b.) State Chapter Presidents who complete a full term of office shall automatically become Life Members at the completion of their term(s).

SECTION 7. QUALIFICATIONS FOR CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP:

a.) SUPPORTING MEMBERSHIP: Any company, business, institution or sole proprietor, who is supporting of the peace officer profession upon application, acceptance by the Executive Board or their designee, and payment of dues, may become a supporting member. Supporting members may not hold office nor vote. Membership as a supporting member does not include death benefits.

b.) BUSINESS ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP: Any business associated with the peace officer profession upon directory sponsorship, with express approval of the chapter each year of membership, may become a Business Associate member. Business Associate members may not hold office nor vote. Membership as a Business Associate member does not include death benefits.

SECTION 8. CONTINUING MEMBERSHIP: Any person who is an Active member in good standing of this Association shall, upon retirement under honorable conditions from active and official duties, continue to be an Active member by paying yearly dues.

SECTION 9. ELIGIBILITY AUTHORITY AND TERMINATION: The State Executive Board shall have ultimate authority over membership eligibility. The State Executive Board may terminate any member for cause.

a.) Termination or suspension of membership in the Association shall consist of three types: death, non-payment of dues, and misconduct.

b) Misconduct is defined as unlawful or improper behavior in relation to the member's public duties or private life; acts which the Member had no right to perform, acts performed improperly, the failure to act in the face of an affirmative duty to act; or any conduct that would tend to reflect negatively on the Association or tend to bring the Association into disrepute.

SECTION 10. INVESTIGATIVE AND DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES:

- a) Any allegation that a member has violated Section 9 above must be presented in writing to the President, unless the allegation of misconduct is made against the President, in which case, the Vice President shall assume the duties outlined in this section.

- b) The President shall place the matter on the agenda for next meeting of the Executive Board to examine the allegations and make recommendations. The President may appoint a committee to investigate the allegations. The Investigating Committee shall report its findings to the Executive Board. Any investigation and related activities shall be conducted with dignity and an appropriate level of confidentiality.

- c) The Member who is the subject of the allegations shall be notified of the results of the investigation. Before the Executive Board terminates or suspends his or her membership, the member in question shall have the opportunity to appear before the Executive Board to address the findings. The Executive Board shall then vote to retain, suspend or expel the member, with a simple majority vote of the Executive Board required.

- d) The President shall notify the member of the Executive Board's action by mail.

ARTICLE IV
STATE EXECUTIVE BOARD

SECTION 1. GENERAL POWERS: The affairs of the Association shall be managed by its board of trustees called the State Executive Board.

SECTION 2. MANNER OF ACTING: The act of a majority of the State Executive Board, voting at a State Executive Board meeting at which a quorum is present, shall be the act of the State Executive Board, unless the act of a greater number is required by law or by these bylaws.

The President also shall call a special meeting of the State Executive Board when requested to do so by at least three (3) Board members and notice thereof shall be given as heretofore provided.
- F. ATTENDANCE OF STATE EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETINGS: Members in good standing in the Association shall have the right to attend any and all meetings of the State Executive Board at their own expense and may address the Board on any matters under discussion, but shall have no voting rights.
- G. EXECUTIVE SESSION: At any time after a meeting of the State Executive Board has been convened, any Board member may make a request for an executive session for a single purpose only. Only Board members shall be in attendance during any executive session.
- H. PROXIES: There shall be no proxy voting.

ARTICLE VII
RULES AND CONDUCT AT MEETINGS

SECTION 1. DUTIES OF THE SERGEANT AT ARMS: A Sergeant at Arms shall be appointed by the President for any general membership meeting. The duties of the Sergeant at Arms shall be those prescribed in Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised and/or prescribed by the President.

SECTION 2. CONDUCT: The conduct of meetings and conventions of the Association shall be in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised, except as may be otherwise specified in these bylaws.

SECTION 3. ADOPTION OF RITUALS: Rituals for the conduct for the opening and closing of meetings and installation ceremonies for officers may be adopted at the general membership meeting by a simple majority vote.

ARTICLE VIII COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. COMMITTEES: The State Executive Board or the President may designate and appoint such committees and ad hoc groups as may be necessary to carry out the purpose of the Association. Any such committees shall report to the State Executive Board. Members of such committees shall be persons from the membership of the Association and appointed by the State Executive Board or the President. One member of each committee shall be appointed chairman by the President when the committee membership is established.

SECTION 2. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE: The State Executive Board may designate three (3) or more of its members to constitute an Executive Committee. To the extent determined by the Board, the Executive Committee has the authority of the Board in the management of the business of the organization. The Executive Committee shall act only in the interval between meetings of the Board and at all times shall be subject to the control and direction of the State Executive Board.

SECTION 3. NOMINATING COMMITTEE: Three (3) members, including the Chair, shall be appointed by the President to serve as the Nominating Committee. The committee shall present a slate of nominees to the State Executive Board at least forty-five (45) days prior to the Annual Meeting.

SECTION 4. MEMBER OF THE YEAR COMMITTEE: Three (3) members, including the Chair, shall be appointed by the President to serve as the Member of the Year Committee. The committee will solicit nominees for Member of the Year and make a selection for recognition at the Annual Meeting.

SECTION 5. LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE: Three (3) or more members, including the Chair, shall be appointed by the President to serve as the Legislative Committee. The committee shall review legislation of interest to the Association. To the extent determined by the Board, the Legislative Committee will determine whether the Association will support, oppose, or take no action on reviewed legislation.

- A. The Association will in no instance take a position on labor issues.
- B. The Association will in no instance support or oppose a political candidate or appointment.
- C. No chapter may take a position on a statewide issue. Individual chapters taking positions on local issues must clarify that the position is that of the individual chapter and not the State Association.

ARTICLE IX FEES, DUES, AND ASSESSMENTS

SECTION 1. DUES: Members of this Association shall pay annual dues and assessments as may be periodically determined by the State Executive Board and duly ratified by a majority vote of those voting at the Annual Meeting, or by written ballot of the entire membership. Dues shall be payable on the first day of each year. The amount of dues so fixed shall be uniform within each class of membership. The State Executive Board shall also have the authority to assess multi-year dues at a reduced rate.

SECTION 2. PAYMENT FROM CHAPTERS: If received by the chapter, that it shall submit the Association dues and assessments to the Business Manager immediately upon acceptance of a member into the chapter.

SECTION 3. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP: Any member of any class shall be in default when a period of ninety (90) days elapses from the date on which dues became payable and they have not been received. In such an event, membership may be terminated by the State Executive Board. Any member that is not current loses voting privileges until payment is received by the Business Manager.

SECTION 4. PUBLICATIONS: By payment of annual dues, a member becomes a subscriber to the Association newsletter and mobile app.

ARTICLE X
FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

SECTION 1. MONIES: The monies of the Association shall be deposited in such bank or banks as the State Executive Board shall designate and shall be drawn only by checks signed by persons designated by resolution of the State Executive Board.

SECTION 2. FISCAL YEAR: The fiscal year of the Association shall be January 1 through December 31 of each year.

SECTION 3. STAFF: The nature, number, and qualifications of the staff required by the Association to conduct its business according to these bylaws and its Articles of Incorporation shall be reviewed by the State Executive Board to ensure they meet the needs of the Association. Any agreements with the staff shall set forth in reasonable detail the nature of the services to be performed, the cost basis for such services and the payment to be made by the Association. At a minimum, the staff will include a Business Manager who will provide necessary support for Association meetings, keep necessary accounting records, and maintain all other records in connection with Association business. The books and records of the Association shall be kept at its office located in Anchorage, Alaska.

SECTION 4. SURRENDER OF RECORDS: Upon a majority vote of the State Executive Board, the staff must surrender to the President or the Board's designee all books and records, in whatever form maintained, as well as all documents and monies of the Association.

SECTION 5. AUDIT:

- A. REVIEW: The financial records of the Association shall be reviewed by the Secretary-Treasurer of the State Executive Board monthly and at the close of the fiscal year prior to the Annual Meeting, or upon order of the President or the State Executive Board, and the result of any examination shall be made known to the membership.

- B. REPORT: An annual financial report shall be prepared by the staff, certified by the State Executive Board, and presented to the membership at the Annual Meeting.

SECTION 6. EXTRAORDINARY EXPENSES: The State Executive Board is empowered to vote to increase operating funds managed by Association Staff by an appropriate amount to cover extraordinary expenses.

ARTICLE XI CHAPTERS

SECTION 1. FORMATION: No chapter shall be formed except upon written application for its formation. The State Executive Board may authorize the formation of chapters of this Association by at least ten (10) members in good standing with the Association, residing within a common geographic area of Alaska.

SECTION 2. RIGHT OF CHARTER: Chapters so formed shall be affiliated with and subordinate to this Association and shall operate by right of the Charter granted by the State Executive Board.

SECTION 3. GOVERNANCE BYLAWS: Chapters so formed shall be governed by a set of bylaws, not in conflict with the bylaws of the Association, which must be approved by the State Executive Board.

SECTION 4. PROCEDURE: At least ten (10) eligible members desiring to establish a chapter of this Association may make written application to the Business Manager. Upon granting of such Charter, the Business Manager shall notify the applicants that a charter has been issued and shall advise them of the proper procedures for the establishment of a new chapter as determined by the Association's State Executive Board. No chapter shall have less than ten (10) members in good standing at any time.

SECTION 5. CHAPTER REPORTS: Chapters shall have the responsibility for submitting all reports and forms in a timely manner, as required by the Association. Failure to do so will place the chapter in delinquent status.

SECTION 6. REMOVAL OR SUSPENSION OF CHARTER: Any chapter found to be out of compliance with these bylaws may be suspended or its Charter may be revoked by the State Executive Board. The chapter shall have the right to appeal such action at a general membership meeting. No chapter that is suspended or has had its Charter revoked may use the Association's name, seal, or insignia in any manner. Any chapter in suspension for a period exceeding twelve (12) months may be dissolved by the State Executive Board.

SECTION 7. DISPOSITION OF CHAPTER FUNDS: Upon suspension of any chapter for any reason, funds held by it must be forwarded to the Business Manager, to be held in trust in an interest-bearing account, until suspension is revoked or a new chapter is organized in the same area. Upon the dissolution or other termination of a chapter, no part of the chapter property or any proceeds thereof shall be distributed or inure to the benefit of any of the individual members of the chapter. All such property and proceeds shall, subject to the discharge of valid obligations and to applicable provisions of law, be distributed as directed by the State Executive Board to any nonprofit organizations.

ARTICLE XII BENEFITS

SECTION 1. DEATH BENEFIT: In the event of the death of an Active member, the State Executive Board shall make the decision as to whether the cause of death was the result of the member's law enforcement duties and was in the line of duty. The decision of the State Executive Board shall be final. If the decision is that the death is a line-of-duty death, a death benefit, in an amount pre-determined annually by the Board, shall be paid immediately.

ARTICLE XIII
OFFICIAL INSIGNIA AND SEAL

SECTION 1. CORPORATE SEAL: The Association will provide for a corporate seal which shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Association, the year and the state of incorporation of the Association and the words "corporate seal." The corporate seal, an impression of which is stamped in the margin of these bylaws, shall be the official seal of the Association and shall be affixed to such documents as required by law or otherwise deemed appropriate.

SECTION 2. OFFICIAL INSIGNIA: The State Executive Board shall adopt a suitable design that shall be used for buttons, emblems, decals, or other items. The emblem shall be used on membership cards, letterheads, and other items issued by and in the name of this Association. The official Association insignia shall be copyrighted.

ARTICLE XIV
AMENDMENTS TO BYLAWS

SECTION 1. PROCEDURE: A minimum of three (3) members in good standing shall be required to propose any amendments to the bylaws, and must file a true and accurate copy of the proposed amendments with the Business Manager no later than thirty (30) calendar days prior to the opening date of the next Annual Meeting.

SECTION 2. NOTIFICATION TO STATE EXECUTIVE BOARD: The Business Manager, upon receipt of any proposed amendments, shall immediately notify all members of the State Executive Board in writing. Upon notification of the proposed amendments, the State Executive Board may approve them for action at the Annual Meeting.

SECTION 3. ADOPTION: Upon at least thirty (30) calendar days written notice, these bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed. New bylaws may be adopted by a majority of Active members by secret ballot, the results of which will be ratified at the Annual Meeting. Any such amendments shall be in full force and effect immediately upon ratification.

ARTICLE XV
SEVERABILITY

Should any individual provision, paragraph, subparagraph, phrase, or word of these bylaws be found by any court having applicable jurisdiction within the State of Alaska to be illegal, only that portion so adjudicated by the court shall be affected. The remaining portions of these bylaws shall remain in full force and effect.

ARTICLE XVI DOUGLAS E. JONES MEMORIAL FUND

SECTION 1. ORIGIN: The Douglas E. Jones Memorial Fund (hereafter “DEJMF”) was established in 2004 through the efforts of Douglas’s widow, Donna C. Willard-Jones. The State Executive Board established a training fund for the memorial payments, and the funds are to be used at the annual Crime Conference until depleted. The DEJMF will continue as long as contributions designated for the fund are received by the Association.

SECTION 2. PROCEDURES: The following procedures are established to manage the DEJMF, continue it in the spirit in which it was intended, and to honor Douglas’s memory.

- A. TRAINING FUNDS: A portion of the DEJMF will be forwarded to the chapter hosting the Crime Conference and is to be used to fund, in whole or in part, a training event held during the Conference. The State Executive Board will determine the amount to be forwarded to the host chapter.
- B. SIGNAGE: The host chapter will display designated signage at the site of the training event(s) funded, in whole or in part, by the DEJMF.
- C. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT: Written acknowledgement of the DEJMF contribution to the training is to be included in the Crime Conference materials.
- D. CONTRIBUTIONS: The Association will accept contributions to the DEJMF and will place those monies in an account designated as the Douglas E. Jones Memorial Fund.

ARTICLE XVII FALLEN OFFICERS FUND

SECTION 1. ORIGIN: The Fallen Officers Fund was established in 2014 through the State Executive Board as a means to raise and preserve funds for the fallen officer line of duty death benefit.

SECTION 2. PROCEDURES: The following procedures are established to manage the Fallen Officers Fund, continue it in the spirit in which it was intended, and to provide line of duty death benefit payment to the families of fallen officers throughout the state of Alaska.

A. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT: The Fallen Officers fund must be a separate account set aside specifically for the intent to pay death benefits.

B. CONTRIBUTIONS: The Association will accept contributions to the Fallen Officers Fund and will place those monies in an account designated as the “APOA Fallen Officers Fund”.

ARTICLE XVIII
DISSOLUTION

SECTION I. PROCEDURE: The corporation may be dissolved upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members at a meeting called for that purpose. Upon dissolution or other termination of the corporation, no part of its property, nor any of the proceeds thereof, shall be distributed to or inure to the benefit of any members, directors, or officers of the corporation, but all such property and proceeds shall be subject to the discharge of valid obligations of the corporation and to applicable provisions of the law, be distributed as directed by the Board of Directors to or among any one or more corporations, trusts, community chests, funds or foundations or activities described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or any successor provision.

These revised bylaws were approved at the Association’s Annual Meeting on the 1st day of May, 2024.
